County Recorder Brown and Docu-Shred of Salem Partner for Public Shredding

Columbiana County Recorder Craig Brown has announced his office has entered a partnership with Salem business Docu-Shred to provide county residents with opportunities for free document shredding.

Brown was very happy with the arrangement and stated, "We're taking the opportunity to showcase an important locally owned and operated growth industry while providing residents with a valuable service."

He added, "This is a win-win situation for both a great local business and county taxpayers."

Docu-Shred owner Dee Dee Thomas said she was pleased with the new partnership and welcomes the opportunity to "spread the word" about her company's services.

Thomas stated, "Docu-Shred has been a local secret too long, and it is time people know about the great services we offer right here in Columbiana County."

Continued Thomas, "There is no reason why businesses should use out of county competitors when the affordable alternative is right here."

Both Brown and Thomas said the partnership was easy to form since both know the importance of supporting the local economy and share a concern for document and identity safety issues.

Brown and Thomas announced two dates which shredding will be available to local residents for no charge. The first date is August 19 from 1:00 to 3:00 P.M at the Calcutta Wal-Mart. The second date is August 26th from 9:00 AM- 11:00 AM at the Salem Wal-Mart parking lot. Residents are permitted to bring up to two medium sized boxes or bags for shredding.

Brown said he was excited about the opportunity for residents to destroy documents because "this is another effort to prevent identity theft and other personal information crimes."

Docu-Shred serves private and residential customers in six Ohio counties specifically Mahoning, Trumbull, Columbiana, Jefferson, Stark, and Carroll. The company also services Beaver County, Pennsylvania.

Docu-Shred is a subsidiary company of another Salem company Industrial Paper Shredders, Inc.
